

CARON - POUR UN HOMME - EST. 1934

Whilst celebrated as a refined yet simple harmonious accord of lavender and vanilla, there's much more going on. Opening on the overt lavender, there are also illusive notes of rosemary and zesty bergamot. The emerging gourmand vanilla aromas are accompanied by clary sage and powdery sandalwood. Once the base arrives, the lavender-vanilla accord interacts with musk, tonka bean and oak moss.

SCORE & CONCLUSION

Although a seemingly odd choice for a masculine fragrance today, Pour Un Homme de Caron was a progressive and daring blend in 1934. Today, it is an elegant and discrete choice that is seductively soothing and tantalising for both the wearer and his entourage.
